24. [ ] LIAISON Jack Brady, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, called requesting that Ev Bierman, Minority Counsel, Bill Fite, of the Committee staff, and Alison Brenner and Mike Van Dusen, of the Subcommittee on Europe and the Middle East staff, be cleared for access to [ ] information. I told him that we had already started the processing for Brenner and Van Dusen and would submit the names of Bierman and Fite for clearing.

I also asked Brady if he had any objection to State reading the transcript of the Director's testimony on AWACS before the full Committee on 21 July. He said he had no problem with it.

25. [ ] LIAISON Accompanied George Cary to meet Guy McConnell and Jim Fellenbaum, Senate Appropriations Committee staff. Mr. Cary discussed various aspects of Presidential Directive NSC/17 and alerted McConnell and Fellenbaum to a letter being drafted by the Comptroller on the Conference Report on the FY 78 Budget.

26. [ ] BRIEFING Gwen Pritchard, in the office of Representative Ike Skelton (D., Mo.), called requesting a briefing on the Panama Treaty. She said the Congressman had really enjoyed his last "breakfast briefing" and that he would like to do it again. She suggested Tuesday, 13 September, as a preferred date. I said we would call back. [ ] CSS, advises that he can brief on the Panamanian reaction to the Treaty but not on the Treaty provisions or their legal or policy ramifications.
